

Thursley's Newsletter

John was not impressed waiting around for the Volk's Electric railway!

Volk's Electric Railway is a narrow gauge heritage railway that runs along a length of the seafront

Danny: never missing a photo op!

John's sisters Gillian and Alison popped down to say hello

Timothy's father came along for a visit and a walk along the seafront

Flash dance anyone??

John trying his luck in the arcade

The residents enjoyed sailing around Brighton Marina

We all took to the skies with 20 minute flight on British i360, all of Thursley was along for the ride as they came down to join for fish and chips!

Other lucky residents got to spend their holiday exploring Hayling Island!

The guys wondered along the seafront and did a spot of shopping

Happy birthday to Clair! She had her birthday while on holiday

From the dance floor

The thorn among the roses!

To a walk in the park it was fun to the very end!

Thursley's Newsletter

John celebrated his 60th Birthday in August; he took a trip down memory lane with his family going to Alfriston where he spent some of his early years

A trip to the seaside was part of the plan, but we all decide to hang out at the side of the cliff at Beachy Head

Timothy also had his birthday in early October

Tim also had a trip up to London to help his father celebrate his birthday on October 25th

Life's a Party on Thursley, whether its Karaoke on the unit

music in the park,

Spanish Evening,

game of scrabble,

a trip to the seaside,

Halloween,

Or ball game and BBQ on the from lawn!

Being regal at Hampton Court Palace

Via Stonehenge: Some of the residents had a day out in Longleat, Melinda was inspired so much that she took to her easel, (pictured below with the result!)

Melinda's lionesses

What's the News?

What's going on:

- The residents have all enjoyed the last three months; they enjoyed every minute of the long summer sun!
- Brighton and Hayling Island holiday was a smashing success...Big thank you to Claire from JC who along with Jim supported some of the residents on holiday
- We now have a nice new shiny and blue lift in place, the residents enjoy using it and likes that it tells them their destination!

Did you know: Honey bees can get drunk from fermented tree sap, but its wasps that were in the news over the long summer for getting drunk on fermented fruits!

What's Coming up:

- Jim's ever popular quiz is taking place on the 18th with a special in place just before Christmas
- All are anticipating the surprises in store for the upcoming Christmas holidays.
- We are having a festive Bake Off Tuesday the 11th of December
- Also on the 11th we are hosting a Mulled Wine and Mince Pie event from 4pm onwards, please come along and join us!